How Cross Cultural Training benefits your organisation:

It fulfils your legal requirement

Ensure you comply with the level of care, safety and compliance required by the new Aged Care Quality Standards. Examples of the eight individual standards of care include:

- Consumer dignity and choice eg. Identity, culture and diversity
- Organisational governance

It grows your business

Will lead to more business as demand from the ageing and disability culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) population increases yearly.

It improves your workplace

Applying the training will develop stronger team dynamics and improve relationships with consumers, saving time and money.
